28 September 1973.

Dear Sir/Madam,

The Society is holding a function for "Id-Milan" on Saturday, 3 November 1973 at the Police Club of Tasmania, 27 Argyle Street, Hobart. The function is open to members as well as non-members of the Society.

The programme will commence at 7.00 pm and will consist of an exotic Indian style dinner and musical items as well as dance and documentary films. An Australian style dinner will also be served with the Indian dinner.

The Society is keeping the admission charges down to $3.00 per adult and $1.50 per child in order to attract as many people as possible to the function. There will be a limited number of admission tickets on sale and it is envisaged that they would be in very heavy demand.

Your co-operation in making the function a success will be greatly appreciated and if you require further information on the function or tickets, please contact either Mr I. H. Naqvi (Telephone No. 478341), Mr A. Singal (Telephone No. 725239), Mr M. G. Hardaker (Telephone No. 284860) or write to the Secretary at the above address.

Yours faithfully,

(I. H. Naqvi)
Secretary
